1. We are altogether in accord with your desire to make every possible operational use of the excellent material which has been developed in the Kravchenko trial. We share your belief that this trial has produced excellent anti-Communist material regardless of the outcome, and that it represents one of the very few times in recent years where Communist strategy has backfired in legal proceedings.

2. We should like to know, at your earliest convenience, detailed plans for the use of the Kravchenko transcript together with the identity of the person you have in mind to prepare your proposed booklet. We assume that this will be [] []

3. When you have received the transcript of this trial, please arrange to have it photostated in the field and one or more copies pouched to the Home Office.
